LABOUR MARKET INFORMATION

Labour market information is a really important tool when deciding on your future career path, it helps you to consider which jobs are in demand and which may be very competitive. When a job is in short supply there are often incentives to enter that profession. It also helps with making decisions about whether to look further afield for your perfect job.

The resources below should be a good start to your research. You will be shown how to understand this in Wider Learning sessions.

Nomis

This is a service provided by the Office for National Statistics, ONS, to give you free access to the most detailed and up-to-date UK labour market statistics from official sources. Labour Market Profile - Nomis - Official Labour Market Statistics (nomisweb.co.uk)
